Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 21-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicants last amendment, After Final Amendment dated 28 July 2003, requires 100% water-soluble metal oxide colloid. Said colloid having particle sizes ranging from 0.5 – 5 nm, wherein the said metals are of a groups VIb, VIIb, VIII, Ib or IIb of the Periodic Table. Said new limitation is deemed new matter for the following reasons.

(1) It is unclear where applicants provide basis for the new limitation requiring 100% water-soluble metal oxide. Applicants (page 3, lines 7-9) disclose water-soluble metal-oxide colloids and bimetal-oxide colloids. The instant limitation of "100% water-soluble metal oxide colloid" has not been found in the originally filed disclosure.

(2) Applicants claims set forth metal-oxides that are 100% water soluble and also claim colloids having a particle size of 0.5 – 5 nm. Said limitations are inconsistent since "completely redispersible in water" is not the same as 100% water-soluble. Furthermore, a 100% water-soluble metal oxide would yield a true solution in water. The metal oxide cannot both be 100% water-soluble and a colloidal particle at the same time. Attention is directed to the Advisory Action mailed 05 August 2003.

(3) It is unclear how metal-oxides of at least groups VIb, VIIb, VIII or IIb are 100% water soluble since said oxides are art known to have limited water solubility. The examples disclose colloidal metal oxides that are redispersible in water but are not disclosed as 100% water-soluble.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 24, 25, 30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 24, 25, 30 and 31, the phrase "the main group of the Periodic Table" lacks antecedent basis.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed October 18, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

7. Applicants (page 10) assert at page 4 of the May 27, 2003 response it was pointed out that the object of the invention is "stable colloids in 100% water". Said characterization is very different from "100 % water-soluble metal oxide colloids". The only materials that are "100% water-soluble" are those that are "100% miscible", such as water/water or methanol/water.

Furthermore, the examples disclose colloidal metal oxides that are redispersible in water but are not disclosed as 100% water-soluble.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
